

George Washington Carver Matching Activity

Instructions: Test your knowledge of George Washington Carver in this activity.

1. The study of how plants, soil and animals can be more sustainable and productive

2. A “nickname” for the peanut

3. The age at which Carver left home to be educated

4. A crop which depleted the soil

5. The state where Carver attended college

6. A crop with an unusually large harvest

7. Even as a child, this was one of Carver’s favorite activities

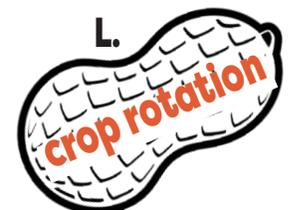

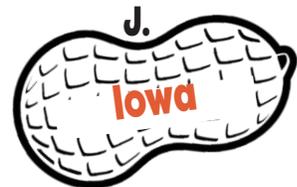

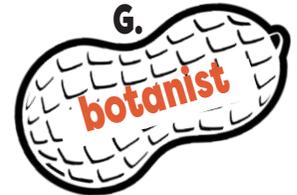

8. To improve the quality of something by adding desirable nutrients

9. The state where Carver was born

10. The crop Carver suggested farmers grow rather than cotton

11. The type of scientist Carver was

12. A practice where different crops are grown after one another on the same land

George Washington Carver Matching Activity Answer Key

- | | |
|---|------------------|
| 1. The study of how plants, soil and animals can be more sustainable and productive | E. agriculture |
| 2. A “nickname” for the peanut | K. goober |
| 3. The age at which Carver left home to be educated | B. twelve |
| 4. A crop which depleted the soil | F. cotton |
| 5. The state where Carver attended college | J. Iowa |
| 6. A crop with an unusually large harvest | H. bumper crop |
| 7. Even as a child, this was one of Carver’s favorite activities | A. gardening |
| 8. To improve the quality of something by adding desirable nutrients | C. enrich |
| 9. The state where Carver was born | D. Missouri |
| 10. The crop Carver suggested farmers grow rather than cotton | I. peanuts |
| 11. The type of scientist Carver was | G. botanist |
| 12. A practice where different crops are grown after one another on the same land | L. crop rotation |