

Patrick Henry Matching Activity

Instructions: Test your knowledge of Patrick Henry in this activity.

- Smoking is _____ because once people start, it's hard for them to quit.
 - "Give me _____ or give me death!"
 - Patrick _____ was a Founding Father who urged Congress to fight the British.
 - Patrick Henry started out life by trying to run a _____, which failed.
 - After his failed store, Henry tried to be a _____ farmer.
 - After his first two jobs failed, Henry studied law and became a _____.
 - Money collected by the government to provide public services.
 - Henry and other colonists were angry about "taxation without _____."
 - Patrick Henry called the King of England a _____ during a trial.
 - Henry served as the first _____ of Virginia.
 - Henry was a _____, meaning he supported the idea of American independence.
 - An addition or add-on, particularly to the U.S. Constitution
- lawyer
 - representation
 - liberty
 - patriot
 - Henry
 - tyrant
 - taxes
 - amendment
 - governor
 - addictive
 - tobacco
 - store

Patrick Henry Matching Activity Answer Key

1. Smoking is _____ because once people start, it's hard for them to quit. J. addictive
2. "Give me _____ or give me death!" C. liberty
3. Patrick _____ was a Founding Father who urged Congress to fight the British. E. Henry
4. Patrick Henry started out life by trying to run a _____, which failed. L. store
5. After his failed store, Henry tried to be a _____ farmer. K. tobacco
6. After his first two jobs failed, Henry studied law and became a _____. A. lawyer
7. Money collected by the government to provide public services G. taxes
8. Henry and other colonists were angry about "taxation without _____." B. representation
9. Patrick Henry called the King of England a _____ during a trial. F. tyrant
10. Henry served as the first _____ of Virginia. I. governor
11. Henry was a _____, meaning he supported the idea of American independence. D. patriot
12. An addition or add-on, particularly to the U.S. Constitution H. amendment